

Desigo Control Point

The embedded building management station – easy operation and monitoring

siemens.com/buildingtechnologies

Would you like to simplify your building management tasks?

With Desigo Control Point, you can monitor and operate your building, monitor your energy consumption, configure your scheduler, create trends and reports, and manage your alarms easily.

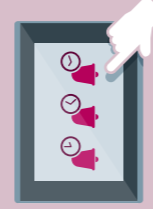

Monitor and operate your building

Monitor your energy consumption

Configure your scheduler

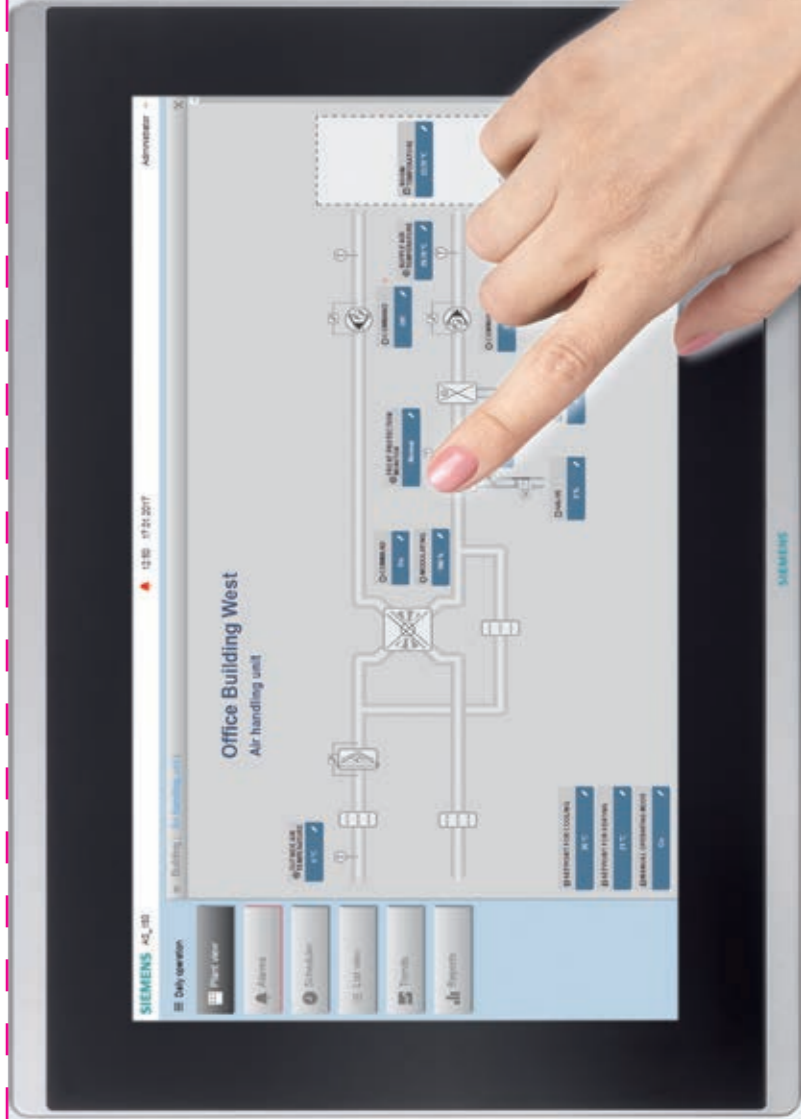

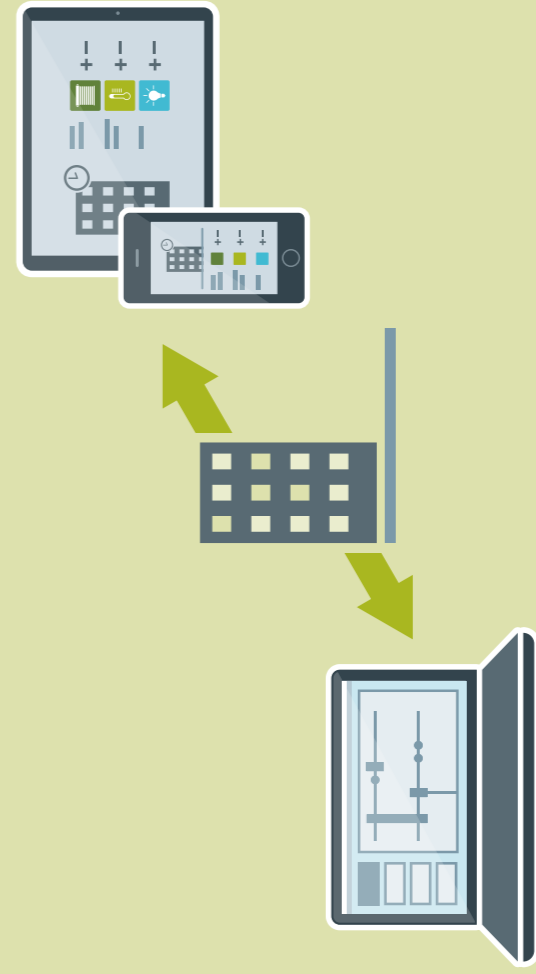

Manage your alarms

Create trends and reports

Do you have access to your plant when you're away?
For example: Right now!

With Desigo Control Point, you can securely access your building from multiple devices, anywhere and any time. Keep an eye on things, even when you're away.

You can use Desigo Control Point in all types of rooms, including offices, conference rooms and event rooms, to intuitively operate lighting and shading, HVAC and more – to create the perfect room conditions.

Have you ever experienced true room comfort?

Efficient and intuitive operation for all kinds of rooms.

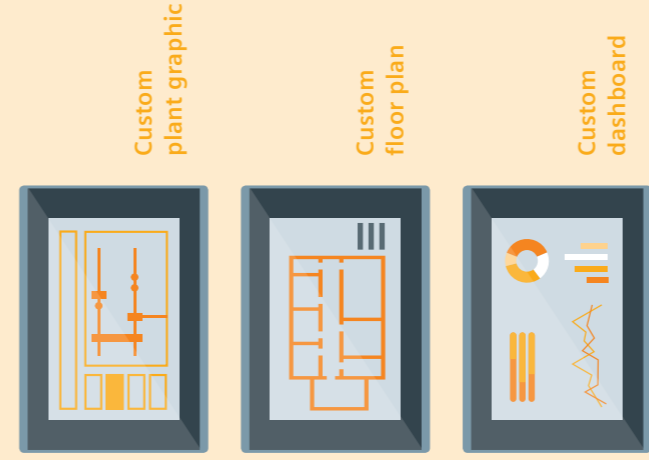

Would you like a custom user interface for your plant or room?

Desigo Control Point offers customized graphics like:

- plant graphics
- floor plans
- room layouts
- dashboards

so your interface has a unique design.

Desigo Control Point has a customizable user interface for plant graphics, floor plans and dashboards.

Would you like to display how much you and your occupants have saved?

Monitor your energy consumption with Desigo Control Point dashboards and encourage even more savings.

Desigo Control Point dashboards allow you to monitor your energy consumption.

